unshakable faith in a broken world

the hearts, minds, and souls of the next generations are at risk! are you ready?

Courageous Grandparenting® Seminar includes five interactive teaching sessions that provide powerful ideas and tools for Grandparents (both local and long-distance). Each session is creatively presented by Cavin Harper, a gifted communicator & author, with an inspirational message on how to walk in truth in this broken world while passing on a rich Christian heritage.

This seminar is for anyone with a desire to come alongside children and youth to make a difference in their walk with Christ. Come learn to be a lifeline of hope to the younger generations.
