MEET OUR NEW PARTNER

The Strengthening Working Families Initiative

Year Up Arizona has proudly partnered with the Strengthening Working Families Initiative (SWFI) to provide our students with additional support on their paths towards rewarding professional careers. Don't let college costs or dependent care challenges get in the way of your career goals. Apply to Year Up and SWFI to maximize your support!

ELIGIBLE STUDENTS RECEIVE:

- Financial aid or training grants for tuition, books, testing fees, and license costs
- Childcare and dependent care expense assistance
- Transportation assistance
- Employment placement upon program completion

TO QUALIFY FOR SWFI SUPPORT, APPLICANTS MUST:

- Be 17 or older
- Have a high school diploma or GED
- Have at least one dependent who is age 13 and under, or has a disability or developmental delay
- Be legally authorized to work in the U.S
- Enroll in Year Up's helpdesk and desktop support training specialty
